WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT NOTICE AND ACCESS

This year, instead of mailing a printed copy of our proxy materials, including our annual report, to each stockholder of record, we have decided to provide access to these materials via the Internet. Accordingly, on March 29, 2010, we began mailing a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials (the “Notice”) to all stockholders of record as of March 12, 2010, and posted our proxy materials on our website as described in the Notice. The following information addresses certain questions you may have regarding this “Notice and Access” process.

Why don’t I receive a copy of the proxy statement, annual report and proxy card in the mail anymore?

The Securities and Exchange Commission recently adopted new “E-Proxy” or “Notice and Access” rules. These rules allow us to send you a one-page notice that proxy materials are available electronically instead of a full package containing a proxy card, annual report and proxy statement. You can elect to have us send hard copies of the proxy materials after receiving the notice. The rules are not mandatory, and we may still choose to mail hard copies of proxy materials to all or some of our stockholders.

How does “Notice and Access” work?

The “Notice and Access” rules permit us to send (or request that brokers send) a one-page notice instead of the traditional large proxy package. This reduces the amount of paper necessary to produce these materials, as well as the costs associated with printing and mailing these materials to all stockholders. Upon receiving such a notice, you have the option of (1) accessing the proxy materials, including instructions on how to vote, online or (2) requesting that those materials be sent to you in paper.

Can I get paper proxy packages now and in the future?

Yes. If you are a stockholder of record, you may contact us as directed on the accompanying Notice and tell us that you want paper proxy packages. This selection will apply to all future proxy mailings by us as well.

If you hold shares of our common stock in street name through a stockbroker rather than directly in your own name, you should contact your broker to request paper proxy packages. Your broker will then send you paper copies of current and future proxy materials for all of your stocks held in that brokerage account.
